

BAIL ARRESTS

- The number of bail offences and bail arrests is the highest in the past five years, which on average were occurring 53 times per year, and involved around 39 individuals each year. The increase in the last year is partly due to a small number of individuals, several of them juveniles, who were each arrested three or more times for bail offences.